

McMENAMINS KENNEDY SCHOOL
RACE TALKS:
Opportunities for Dialogue

WHERE PUSH-OUTS
CAN LEAD:
THE DEATH PENALTY

Presented by

FRANK THOMPSON

Retired, Superintendent of the Oregon State Prison

MARK KRAMER Attorney, Kramer & Associates Law Offices

JAN SLICK Clinical Social Worker

DR. LURLENE SHAMSUD-DIN Lifeworks NW: Nickerson and R.E.A.L. Programs

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 2014

Doors at 6 p.m.; event at 7 p.m. · Free · All ages welcome

5736 N.E. 33rd Ave. · Portland · (503) 249-3983 · mcmenamins.com

Each month, Kennedy School hosts a presentation on ethnicity and race in Oregon, given by educators and experts in order to provide intercultural learning experiences. The goal of RACE TALKS is to support interracial and cross-cultural communication through the development of sensitivity and understanding.

Co-sponsored by Donna Maxey, Uniting to Understand Racism and Resolutions Northwest and World Arts Foundation, Inc.

McMenamins History